STATE DAIRYMAN'S MEETING OPENS JAN. 19

FINE PROGRAM FOR THE THREE DAYS' SESSION

CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER
10 A. M. TUESDAY, CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

ADDRESS OF WELCOME BY R. R.
GOULD, PRESIDENT OF THE CHAMBER

The Minnesota State Dairyman's convention opens its three days' session in Brainerd at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, January 19, at the Chamber of Commerce. The convention will be called to order by President L. Jensen, of Clearbrook.

The invocation will be delivered by Rev. August Samuelson, pastor of Clara Lutheran church. The minister spent his boyhood on the farm and in his Dakota pastorates was a champion of improved dairy herds, cultivation of the soy bean, etc.

The address of welcome will be delivered by R. R. Gould, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Before coming to Brainerd Mr. Gould had taken a college course which also included studies fitting him for county agent work. Milking a cow is no theoretical sport for Mr. Gould. The response will be given by Hon. Andrew French, St. Paul.

The musical number will be a piano selection by Miss Mildred O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Con O'Brien. The musical numbers, in large part, have been supplied by the Brainerd Musical club.

L. Jensen will give the president's annual address, followed by the report of the treasurer, J. M. Jack of Northfield. Appointment of committees will round out the morning session.

Afternoon Tuesday

The opening musical number will be a violin solo by Miss Geraldine Kiebler, the session of the convention beginning at 1:30 P. M.

Hon. N. J. Holmberg, state dairy and food commissioner, St. Paul, will give an address, followed by Prof. C. G. Selvig, of the Northwestern School and Station, of Crookston. Hon. James Sorenson, secretary of the Creamery Managers' Association, St. Paul, will speak on "The Weak Links."

Evening Smoker

At 8 o'clock in the evening the convention smoker will be given. The first musical selections will be given by the Brainerd Elks trio, composed of A. C. Mraz, Rowland Jenkins and Hon. S. F. Alderman. They will sing the melodies and songs which have made this trio famous in the annals of W. C. C. O. station, as well as local and outside conventions.

The Knights of Columbus chorus with Miss Mayme Scallan as accompanist, is also expected to contribute several numbers.

Among local speakers will be Walter M. Murphy of the Lions club and first vice president of the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce, on "Conservation and Roads," Col. C. D. Johnson on his dairy statistics; R. L. Geist, president of the Lions club, Charles Kargel, superintendent of the Gull Lake Park Dairy, George D. LaBar, president of the First National Bank, Hon. E. P. Scallan of Crosby, representative of this district, and others.

The gavel will then be turned over to the dairymen who will call on their speakers and supply men will also be recognized.

Succeeding Programs

Succeeding programs will be published a day in advance by The Dispatch.

One of the novelties for the luncheon provided Thursday evening is the moving pictures. The Woodhead Motor Company will show two films from the University of Minnesota on dairying and milk testing, also one of Henry Ford's latest flying machines.

Among the speakers will be Hon. C. Rosenmeier, Little Falls, senator of this district. He spent his youth on the farm and knows the problems of farmers and dairymen.

The Lions club had committee meetings today and is rounding up its campaign for farmer memberships in the State Dairyman's Association. Banks of the city have entered heartily in the spirit of increasing the membership.

The Rotary club has invited 25 farmers of the county to be its guests at the noonday luncheon Tuesday (tomorrow) at the Ransford hotel.

The beautiful silver cups to be awarded the two Crow Wing county farm bureau units having the largest membership in the association and other cups to be awarded in butter and cheese exhibits are on exhibition at Houghton's jewelry store.

FIRE TRUCK AND AUTOMOBILE IN SMASHUP

Vincennes, Ind., Jan. 18.—(UP)—A fire truck and an automobile collided here today, causing the death of three men and injuring two others, one perhaps fatally, according to a police check up.

The dead: Chief City Electrician George Lane, 40; Fireman Claude Woodall, 50, and Fred Compton, 37. Fire Chief Dan Decker was believed fatally hurt and Thomas Russell, driver of the automobile, was less seriously hurt.

The accident occurred when the heavy ladder truck of the local company, responding to an alarm, struck Russell's car at a street intersection. Both machines plunged across the street, striking a third car parked at the curb, rebounded and hit a tree on the opposite side of the thoroughfare.

The tree was snapped off at the base and the three men riding on the running board of the truck were crushed to death almost instantly.

FOUR DEAD AND SEVERAL WOUNDED AT MILWAUKEE

SERIES OF SUICIDES AND SHOOTINGS OVER THE WEEK END

WISCONSIN CITY HAS GORY
SERIES OF SERIOUS
CRIMES

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Four persons are dead and several sustained wounds, one of them perhaps fatal, as the result of a series of suicides and shootings here over the week end.

Richard Hoefer, 45, said to have been crazed by drink, shot and killed his nephew Gerhard Endreger, 22, wounded George Thurnbauer and then turned the gun upon himself, inflicting two wounds from which he probably will die.

Hoefer's wife and three children from whom he had been separated witnessed the shooting from the second floor of the Hoefer home.

Mrs. Frederick M. Shaefer, 49, who yesterday returned from a two weeks visit with her brother is believed to have become despondent when there was no one to greet her and turned on the gas jets of the stove. She was found dead upon the floor and all efforts to revive her with a pulmotor proved futile.

After locking himself in a bath room, Dennis Coel, 54, who is said to have been in ill health for some time, slashed his throat and wrists with a razor and was found dead.

A man believed to be Felix Julski, about 40, died at Emergency hospital from the effects of poison, which is believed to have been self-administered.

Quick action by her sister, saved Mrs. Josephine Gold, 38, from death, after she is said to have taken poison in the presence of her two sons. Attendants at the hospital where she was taken say she will recover.

RIVER BARGE LINE ON THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI

MISSISSIPPI BARGE LINE

FIXES SIGNATURE TO THE CONTRACT

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Contracts for operation of a river barge line are to be brought from Washington today to the Upper Mississippi Barge Line Corporation, the successful bidder. Secretary of War Davis has already signed the contract and officials of the corporation will affix signatures at once.

A. C. Wiprud, secretary of the Barge Line Corporation, is to bring the contract.

Brigadier General T. Q. Ashburn, chief of the Inland Waterways Corporation, the government agency which will lease the $600,000 river fleet from the Upper Mississippi Corporation, and Theodore Brent, New Orleans, manager of the federal service, will arrive tomorrow.

Ashburn will examine plans and specifications for the barge line assembled by W. W. Morse, vice-president of the barge corporation, and A. R. Eby, who last summer made an extended investigation of transportation on the lower Mississippi. After receiving official approval, bids will be asked and contracts awarded.

BLAMES PLANETS FOR MANY VIOLENT DEATHS CAUSED

Milwaukee, Wic., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Influence of the planets is to blame for unusual number of violent deaths here over the week end, Charles A. Kirschhoff, astrologer, explained.

According to Kirschhoff, there is a connection between the moon and uranus every 28 days, when more magnetic current passes over the earth from the planets. This he said was taking place yesterday.

As a result of this condition Kirschhoff explains, "sensitive, (persons especially subject to planetary influences), become depressed and irresponsible."

Kirschhoff also explained this is a time of greater danger of accidents.

COLD WAVE MAY COME FROM CANADA

EXPECTED TO SWEEP OUT TO-NIGHT, STRIKING THE NORTHWEST

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—(UP)—A cold wave will sweep out of Canada tonight, sending Minnesota temperatures to the zero mark, the weather bureau here predicted today.

The temperature in Winnipeg is four below zero. Over most of the state, the wave will be partially spent by the time of arrival here and thermometers are not expected to go below zero.

Tuesday will be partly cloudy and continued cold but beyond that the bureau would hazard no prediction.

Scotts Bluff, Neb., Jan. 18.—Melting temperatures today brought relief to western Nebraska which has been snowbound for more than a month. The huge blanket of snow, heaviest in years, which settled down on this part of the state more than a month ago following a series of heavy blizzards, is slowly melting.

Harrisburg, 25 miles south of here which was on the verge of a food shortage last week, because of its snowbound condition, today was receiving truck loads of supplies. The mountainous drifts across the highways to the inland town of 200 inhabitants were abandoned and road outfits made new roads over the snow fields.

Another search north of Bayard yesterday for the bodies of J. E. Sheu, traveling salesman, and Miss Gladys Dunbar, his companion, who are believed to have perished in the blizzard of December 13, was without avail.

This was the second air fatality for the twin cities within six weeks, the other being Lieutenant Edward A. Michaud, who was killed on the same field.

Lieutenants Olson and Nolan had been in the air about an hour and were flying at an altitude of 500 feet when they went into a "flat spin" and fell to the ground.

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—(UP)—A board of inquiry was appointed today by Adjutant General W. E. Rhinow to investigate the airplane crash near Wold-Chamberlain airport yesterday in which one man was killed and another seriously injured.

FEARED COMING OF HER CHILD AND KILLS SELF

17 YEAR BRIDE THOUGHT EX-PENSE OF CHILD WOULD RETARD HUSBAND

BELIEVED LATTER WOULD HAVE TO GIVE UP HIS SCHOOL

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Because she feared approaching motherhood would spoil the chances of her husband graduating from medical college, Mrs. Helen Whalen, 17-year old bride of Thomas Whalen, committed suicide by swallowing poison here Sunday. Whalen is a second year medical student at the University of Omaha.

He and his girl wife had been discussing their future and the wife became convinced that the expense of bearing the child would be so great that her husband would be forced to give up his school work before graduation.

"When I die I want to die fast," Mrs. Whalen remarked as she left the room following the discussion.

A few moments later Whalen heard a scream in their bedroom. Rushing to the room he found his wife on the floor. She had mixed a number of poisons with which her husband had been experimenting and drank them.

Efforts at resuscitation were futile and she died within an hour.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Using smoked glasses as a disguise, five men held up and robbed the exclusive Hotel Hayes of $2,500 early today.

The bandits entered the lobby of the hotel brandishing automatic pistols, compelled a woman and five men to lie face down upon the floor, and forced the night clerk, Henry Welch, to hand over $2,500. The Hotel Hayes is at 6th street and University avenue.

POLICE STATION IN ST. PAUL IS CONDEMNED

IF FIRE STARTED CENTRAL STA-TION WOULD COL-LAPSE

SETTLING OF FLOOR WOULD JAM
ALL THE CELL
LOCKS

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—(UP)—The central police station here is a fire-trap and in imminent danger of collapse, an inspector reported to the board of control here today.

If a fire started in the station and burned away some of the decayed wooden posts supporting the cell room, the floor would sag, locks would jam and prisoners might be burned like rats in a trap, according to the report.

Further, the weight of confiscated liquor and gambling devices added to the burden of iron cells makes the building dangerous even with fire hazard discounted, it was said. Chief of Police E. J. Murnane told the board his office has sagged seven inches.

Unless the building is vacated within a short time, a writ of mandamus to force vacation may be sought. Plans for a $750,000 building to house the police, fire and health departments have been drawn but funds are not yet appropriated.

TWO HIGH SCHOOL BOYS AS BANDITS TO RECOUP LOSSES

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Two high school boys, sons of wealthy men, shuddered today when told that their start in crime was similar to that of Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, the youthful slayers of Robert Franks, James Wray and Herbert Ellison, both 17 years old, both seniors at Tilton high school, were short $7 in their receipts for a class dance and so went out with a revolver and held up a grocery store—obtaining $12. Because of their distinctively college clothes they were identified and arrested a few hours later. From detective headquarters they telephoned their wealthy fathers and broke the news. They were cautioned that Leopold and Loeb got their start in crime by committing holdups and may escape further punishment.

SIX INJURED IN TWIN CITY MISHAPS

ONE IS DEAD FROM INJURIES RE-CEIVED AT A RAIL-ROAD

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Six persons were injured in Twin City traffic accidents Sunday and one is dead from injuries received on the St. Paul railroad.

John Paul, a switchman, was struck by an engine while working in the yards and died from injuries. The most serious of the auto mishaps was that in which Mrs. Fred Ralls of St. Paul was internally injured and her husband, Fred Ralls, was knocked unconscious.

BERLIN AND BRIDE IN SECLUSION

London, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Still besieged by the curious, Irving Berlin and his helpless bride spent Sunday in seclusion following a Saturday night dancing party. Irving regaled the party with "Remember," one of the songs dedicated to Mrs. Berlin while she was still Ellen MacKay.

9 KILLED, 33 HURT IN EXPLOSION OF BENZINE TANK

Berlin, Jan. 18.—(UP)—An explosion early today of a benzine tank in a corner store of a four story tenement building in the Mosbitt suburb hurled tenants from their beds with the force of an earthquake. Up to noon, nine were reported dead and 33 injured. Of the latter 13 were in a grave condition. Besides these casualties a number of persons were reported missing.

The explosion sent scores of the 200 sleepers in night gowns to the street. It wrought some strange freaks. The chauffeur of a passing automobile was hurled 60 feet but was not injured. His car, however, was split in two.

The building itself, located in one of the biggest workers sections of Greater Berlin, was badly shaken and cracked and there was danger that the entire structure would collapse.

Investigation indicated that the explosion had been caused by the owner entering the tank room with a lighted cigar.

WAR STARTED ON BOOTLEG DRUGGISTS

ASSITANT SECRETARY OF TREAS-URY ANDREWS GIVES NECES-SARY ORDERS

URGES REVOKING THE PERMITS
WHERE DRUGGISTS CONNIVE
WITH BOOTLEGGERS

By JOSEPH WASNY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, Jan. 18.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews, dry czar, today ordered his 23 regional prohibition administrators to begin war on bootleg druggists.

In a letter to his lieutenants, Andrews urged revoking of permits of druggists who connive with bootleggers and outlined methods of obtaining evidence against the illicit traders.

"I believe it is possible to clear up pretty thoroughly on the diversion of whiskey through its present form of distribution for medicinal use, by revoking permits of all those druggists who are party to its misuse," Andrews wrote.

"Administrator Baird has proposed for his district (western and central Pennsylvania) to lift simultaneously from every drug store in a given city, one pint of its medicinal whiskey; then test this whiskey for purity, and where the druggist handling split whiskey or other than absolutely pure bottled in bond whiskey to revoke his permit," Andrews wrote.

"He will then publish the names of those druggist handling genuine bottled in bond whiskey so the public may know where it may be purchased for medicinal purposes."

"In the large cities it would have to be done one section at a time for want of enough men to handle it. In all cases the bottle could be returned to the druggist after it has been tested."

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Nineteen liquor permits held by druggists and physicians were revoked today by Prohibition Administrator E. C. Yellowley because evidence reaching him indicated infractions of the regulations.

Franklin Park, Ill., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Four bandits today robbed the Franklin Park State bank of approximately $5,000 in cash and made their escape in a large automobile. The bandits roared away just as a posse of citizens came running to the scene.

The four men gave personal bond of $100 each pending appeal from the court action. They are to come in court in three days to say why they should not be jailed.

Cronin was dismissed some time ago. He went into court and charged he was not given a fair trial. He was ordered reinstated. Collins and the commission refused to reinstate him.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Brandishing a club of cloture, senate world court leaders promised today that before the end of the week the Harding-Hughes-Coolidge plan of American participation in the international tribunal will be adopted.

The irreconcilable group, which promised to arouse the country against the plan as it did in the League of Nations fight seven years ago, gave indications of helplessness to prevent its adoption.

"If the cloture rule is evoked there is nothing left to do but vote," Sen. George Moses, New Hampshire, republican, and one of the irreconcilable floor leaders, told the United Press. "We have no parliamentary refuge."

As announced by the United Press Saturday, the court adherents are appearing to resurrect a limited debate regulation that has not been used since the historic battle over the Versailles treaty. Under this rule 16 senators may force a vote to limit debate for one hour each senator.

This motion must be carried by a two-thirds majority but court adherents claim (and their claims seem substantiated) they have the necessary two-thirds.

Washington, Jan. 18.—World court adherents decided today not to use their cloture club for the present and the irreconcilables again undertook to prevent an immediate vote.

Sen. Lenroot, acting republican floor leader, talked with his followers soon after the senate met and they agreed to hold up any attempt to invoke the rule restricting debate.

CORN BORER QUARANTINE ON IN IOWA

GOVERNOR AND SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE APPROVE REGULATIONS

IOWA IS FIRST OF 10 CENTRAL STATES TO ESTABLISH THE BAN

Ames, Iowa, Jan. 18.—(UP)—By order of C. J. Drake, state entomologist, a corn borer quarantine was in effect today in Iowa. Gov. John Hammill and Mark Thorburg, secretary of agriculture, approved the quarantine Saturday to be clamped on Jan. 18. Iowa is the first of 10 central states to establish the ban. Within the next week or two the states of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, and Ohio will have established the same quarantine. All broom corn (except clean shelled corn), all sorghums and sudan grass that has been grown or stored in the infested regions of New York, Michigan, Ohio, and Pennsylvania or in the entire states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island or Connecticut are prohibited from entering this state unless accompanied by certificate showing the shipment has been inspected by the United States department of agriculture and found "pest free."

DEFENSE MOTION FOR DISMISSAL OF MURDER CHARGE

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—(UP)—A defense motion for dismissal of murder charges against George Hurley for connection with the slaying of Burton Stevens here Feb. 16, 1925, was denied today by Judge R. D. O'Brien.

Charles Sterling, one of the defense attorneys, asked dismissal on the ground the state had introduced no evidence to incriminate Hurley. He indicated the defense would show Hurley merely chanced to pass the scene of the murder and was forced to drive the slayers away.

Hurley is charged with complicity in the crime for which Ben and Abe Gleeman are serving life sentences at the state penitentiary. The state has called numerous witnesses to identify Hurley as the driver of the car in which the murders escaped.

SHORT COURSE AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL CONDUCTED AT FARGO

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 18.—(UP)—The fourth annual short course conducted at the agricultural college here for instruction of poultry raisers started today.

FARMERS' AND HOMEMAKERS' SHORT COURSE

St. Paul, Jan. 18.—(UP)—The annual farmers' and homemakers' short course at the university farm here started today with the largest enrollment ever attracted.

First class work began at 1:30 p. m. with instructions for women in dress-making and for men in livestock husbandry, veterinary medicine, crop production and farm engineering. Classes will continue throughout the week.

The greatest increase in enrollment was due to the large number of women from cities and suburban districts availing themselves of the instruction.

Washington, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Sen. Copeland, New York democrat, served notice in the senate today that he would press for early action on his resolution empowering the president to end the anthracite coal strike.

"If the president would call representatives of the operators and miners to the White House the strike would be settled in half a day," Copeland said.

"The poor people cannot afford to pay $33 a ton for anthracite coal and $20 a ton for coke and bituminous coal. There is bound to be suffering and there is bound to be loss of life if this strike is not ended."

Washington, Jan. 18.—(UP)—The U. The government did not oppose granting the review.

With its excellent cast and production, fresh from its phenomenal runs of forty-two and thirty-nine weeks, respectively, at Los Angeles and San Francisco, Anne Nichols' famous successful appealing comedy, "Abie's Irish Rose," will be presented by the world-famous author-producer for an engagement of one night only, Monday, Jan. 18 at the Park theatre, and unless all signs fail Brainerd will be another city to be added to the long list of records established by this truly remarkable play, which has been the cause of more discussion than any play written since the Bard of Avon started writing.

"Abie's Irish Rose" is not only brimful of good clean wholesome comedy, there being a hearty laugh in almost every line, but in its unfolding discloses one of the prettiest little love stories ever told, which in its simplicity is at once winning.

I. C. C. GIVES US UNCALLED FOR FREIGHT RATE INCREASE

THE Interstate Commerce Commission, or the I. C. C. as it is familiarly dubbed, has given Brainerd a nice New Year's present in the shape of uncalled for increases in freight rates from the Twin Cities covering less than carload lots.

The whole thing started at Fargo and Watertown which complained to the I. C. C. that they were discriminated against in the way of freight rates, that their commercial development was retarded by the rates in effect. They made their case and presented it to the commission.

And what did the commission do? They left the Fargo, Watertown rates stand and hoisted the rates on surrounding territory. This leaves Fargo and Watertown at the rate first complained of and now works an injustice on Brainerd and other territory by raising our rates on less than carload lots.

Here are a few concrete examples. The Lampert Brothers Lumber company often ships in less than carload lots of hardwood flooring, building paper and other supplies from St. Paul and Minneapolis. The old rate was 28 cents. Under the I. C. C. decision, now in effect for sometime, the rate is 42 cents. Another peculiar thing about the working of this rate law is that Minneapolis can ship the same lot of stuff through Brainerd and on to Nisswa for only 35 cents.

Wholesalers in Brainerd territory have a remedy by ordering carload lots, which rate is not affected. But many a small merchant keeps his stock moving and eliminates holdovers by ordering less than carload lots and consequently such a freight transaction carries the hoisted I. C. C. rate.

When the new I. C. C. (less than carload) rate went into effect, it was just as much a surprise for Fargo and Watertown as the Twin Cities. The rate, for instance, on less than carload lots of fruit is cheaper from the Twin Cities to Ironton via Brainerd, than it is from Minneapolis to Brainerd.

In a front page story Sunday, the St. Paul Pioneer Press stated that trucks were termed a cure for unfair rail rates, or a tariff raise was the only alternative, in the opinion of Ivan Bowen.

"Motor trucks or a statewide increase in freight rates are the only methods of removing the discriminatory freight rates which now exist under the order of the Interstate Commerce commission, setting aside the order of the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse commission, is the opinion of Ivan Bowen of the state commission, who issued a statement following action of the federal district court in granting an injunction restraining the state body from putting into effect rates as established by the state commission in 1914 and supplemented by later orders.

"Mr. Bowen's statement follows:
"It should be fully understood that the consequence of the injunction obtained against the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse commission is to stop effectively regulation by state authority of intrastate rates of steam railroads. The only 'discretion' the state commission has left is to authorize an increase in rates.

"Jobbing centers which are affected by the increased discriminatory rates ordered by the Interstate Commerce commission within the state of Minnesota should not be optimistic about any relief that may be obtained from applications for rehearings to be presented to the Interstate Commerce commission. The application will be opposed by Watertown and Fargo, and delays of months are bound to be encountered.

"This commission will bring on for hearing at the first opportunity applications of motor truck companies proposing to serve the territory now discriminated against by the rate increases authorized by the Interstate Commerce commission.

"Furthermore, it must be born in mind that the Interstate Commerce commission is now considering increased rates on grains within the state of Minnesota and also has just handed down a decision to the effect that flax seed rates in Minnesota are discriminatory and should be increased."

The Pioneer Press then relates history of the rate case. The federal district court granted railroads of the state, with the exception of the Chicago Great Western, an injunction restraining the State Railroad and Warehouse commission from putting its rates into effect, which are lower than those granted by the Interstate Commerce commission.

The contention of various shippers in communities affected by the federal commission order is that a discriminatory freight rate is in effect and as a result these shippers are experiencing a financial burden.

Hearings on an order to show cause why the various railroads of Minnesota should not abide by the state commission's orders were held more than a month ago, at which time leading shippers, officials of civic and commercial organizations protested that a discrimination in rates had been established. The rates of the Interstate Commerce commission are approximately 40 per cent higher on the average than those established by the state body.

Subsequent to the hearings held in the capital, Governor Christianson headed a delegation of state officials to Washington where it was sought to have a rehearing on the question before the Interstate Commerce commission. Although this hearing virtually is granted, it will be many months before any definite action will be taken. It is believed the only solution in removing the existing discrimination is the motor truck.

Fire Under Water

A new form of steam boiler, the flame of which burns in water, has been developed. In the new boiler the burner is set at the end of a pipe projecting to the middle of the water reservoir. Oil fuel is used in combination with compressed air. To start the boiler the water level is lowered below the burner. When this has been lighted the water is permitted to rise to the top of the boiler, covering burner and flame, but the flame continues to burn brilliantly under the surface, taking oxygen from the air jet.

River Islands Reserved

President Coolidge by executive order has withdrawn from settlement, location, sale or entry all islands owned by the government in the Mississippi river between Rock Island

The First-Aid Girl

By JANE OSBORN

(Copyright.)

BILL OTIS, was talking emphatically over the telephone in his private office which he, as recently appointed costs expert for Walter & Dawkins, had occupied for less than two weeks. As he hung up the receiver he looked at his hand and saw drops of blood on his fingers. Then he remembered that in the heat of his argument he had brought it down hard on the keen-pointed paper spike.

"Anyone got any cotton for bandages here?" he asked of a young clerk who happened to be passing. "You'll get it from the first-aid girl down at the last desk," said the clerk. "She's got all those things—aromatic spirits of ammonia when anyone faints."

Bill Otis, still holding his handkerchief firmly around his finger to hide scarlet stains, went to the last desk in the large main office. A young girl who seemed to be very busy making records in several enormous books sat there and Bill hoped sincerely that she was the first-aid girl, for he had noticed her several times before.

"It's just a scratch," Bill said. "Give me a little bandaging, if you don't mind."

"You'd better go back in your office," said the girl. "I'll follow."

Two minutes later Bill was seated in his large armchair with this very pretty girl beside him. With immaculate white and shapely hands she was bathing the finger that had been cut—using sterile cotton and a little white enamel cup. Then she took Bill's large hand in hers, and looking at it almost tenderly asked him if it didn't hurt. "It was a rather bad tear," she told him. "I think I should have fainted." She applied some healing salve on a bit of sterile cotton and then neatly bandaged it.

The next day in passing the desk of the first-aid girl, Bill Otis stopped to thank her for her trouble. He likewise asked her her name. Margaret Clark, she told him. He told her she was a born nurse.

"Really I'm not," she said. "I've always hated anything like that. But when I took this job the first-aid kit seemed to go with the desk. They said that the girl that sat at this desk always had had it. Someone had to be responsible—and so I took it. Nothing ever happened like this before, though," she said, rather proud that at last she had been called upon to show her skill. "You see I thought something might happen, so I took an evening course in first aid."

More than ever Bill Otis admired this girl at the end desk, and every time he passed he made some mental observation of her. She was dressed so smartly, her hair was always so smooth and glossy and well brushed.

A few days later he sent her a large bunch of violets with a card inclosed, saying simply, "From a grateful patient." By that time the office people were talking pleasantly about Margaret Clark and Bill Otis. Meantime Bill Otis tried as best he could to gain the friendship of this young girl whom he so much admired, but all quite unsuccessfully. Then one day, feeling more chagrin than usual at his lack of success, he quite deliberately scratched his hand with the paper spike—it was enough to draw one drop of blood, no more. He went out to Margaret's desk and asked her for help, displaying proudly the drop of blood on his finger. Margaret went to his office with her kit. But after that she barely spoke when he passed her desk.

Then one day something really did happen. Bill Otis in his office alone went to raise the heavy swinging window. Through a defect in the chain that was supposed to hold the window it fell with a crashing thud on Bill's arm. As he turned to go back to his desk the walls seemed to bend and the furniture went swimming round the room. Bill tried to raise his arm and almost fainted.

"Perhaps spirits of ammonia would pull me around until I got out of here," he said to himself and with all the fortitude he could muster went to the door and asked the girl nearest him to ask Miss Clark to come in with her first aid. The girl laughed and Bill shut the door and staggered over to his chair.

Bill didn't remember just what happened then, except that he made Margaret understand that he wanted to pull himself together so as to be able to get away without anyone in the office knowing that he had been hurt. It was the ammonia spirits that she mixed up that gave him the strength he needed—that and the promise that if he could get to the main entrance she'd meet him there.

She came and, summoning a taxi, drove with him to the nearest hospital, where the doctors gave him ether and learned that he had sustained a compound fracture of the arm.

As Bill opened his eyes and felt the slow, dull pangs of pain return there was Margaret Clark, his first-aid girl, beside him.

"I know I'm only a first aid," she said apologetically, "but I wanted to see you through." The pallor on her pretty cheeks told Bill that her ordeal had not been an easy one. Bill murmured something. He tried to tell her that he loved her and to ask her to marry him, but she did not understand. Two weeks later when the arm was in fair shape again he repeated these words and this time Margaret understood.

HOW LEGION MEN MAKE THEIR DAILY BREAD

Who are members of The American Legion? What are they doing in civilian life? Do they retain the wanderlust engendered by their years of service at home and abroad, or have they settled down in homes of their own?

These questions are answered by statistics tabulated recently by The American Legion Weekly. The figures show that the Legionnaire has settled into the life of the nation in a manner most fortunate for the country's welfare.

Many Legion men have gone back to the farm, according to the Weekly, there being 102,737 subscribers listed as farmers, ranchers and cowboys. Next come clerks, 82,109; then salesmen, agents and buyers, 49,470. Other classifications are: laborers, 47,152; mechanics, 44,396; doctors and surgeons, 27,035; public officials, 22,877, and managers 22,470.

There are 16,932 lawyers; 10,855 contractors and builders; 7,377 dentists; 13,085 professors, teachers and principals; 6,112 nurses; 13,100 railroad men; 5,215 restaurant men; 2,692 clergymen; 2,640 actors and musicians; 5,840 printers; 4,430 newspapermen and publishers; 407 artists.

HOW THEY FEEL IN MIAMI

E. C. Bane, now in Miami, Florida, the following verses indicating how they knew the kicker down there:

ULTIMATUM

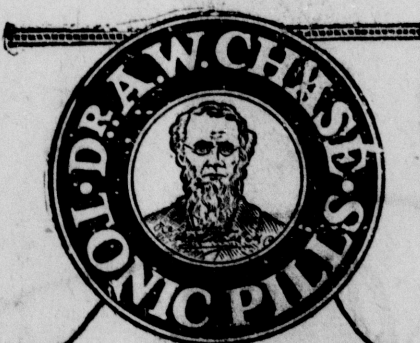

If you do not like Miami,
Or the speed at which it grows;
If you do not like our scenery,
Our weather, or our shows;
If you cannot stand our traffic,
The prices and the rates;
Boats and trains are leaving sir,
For forty-seven states.

If you don't want to pay for meals,
But want your wages high;
If you want to "Make a million,"
Yet at room rent howl and cry;
If your hands are soft your knickers white;

If you like to sit and wait—
Why knock our town? There's room for you in forty-seven states.

If you cannot boost Miami,
Which has just begun to grow,
If you sneer at all our beaches
Where our thousands daily go;
If you only come to "grab," and have
Those pushing, knocking traits—
You can buy a ticket, stranger,
For forty-seven states.

Closing In

She sat there next to him, snugly close. Calling it proximity simply intimates slightly how close they were. They were compact, imitating the imitable sardine. She twitched, moved a little closer, if such were possible. He could feel the warmth of her body as it pressed tightly close to his. But she seemed restless. She could not remain quiet. It was disconcerting at such a time. Finally he yielded. His will power was gone. He rose and gave the lady a whole seat in the street car.—Red Cat.

PRESS AGENT OF BEAUTY QUEEN FINDING FLAWS

LOUIS JACOBS TAKES EXCEPTION TO FAY LANPHIER'S NOSE

NOW THAT HE HAS BEEN DIS-CHARGED, HE FINDS MANY IMPERFECTIONS

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 18. — (UP) — Now that he no longer is employed as her press agent, Louis Jacobs has discovered that the dainty nostrils of Fay Lanphier, the "Miss America" of 1925, aren't mates.

Also, her shoulders sag and she has other visible imperfections that, had it not been for his prolific pen, would have kept her at her typewriter as a stenographer. Jacobs charges in his suit to recover $5,906, to which he is entitled under an agreement that Miss Lanphier was to "split" her profits with him.

The dazzling smile which he claims to have taught her, kept the eyes of the judges up to her instead of around her knees which he charges are far from being perfect.

"Why I think that's perfectly horrid of him," exclaimed Miss Lanphier, in denying she had any kind of an agreement with Jacobs. "It's just an attempt to extort money from a girl who has won a little bit of success."

Weight at a Crossing

To such reckless persons as are planning to race the train to the crossing, the words of a Great Northern railroad official might prove of interest. "A train," says he, "is approximately 1,650 times as heavy as the average automobile."—Detroit Free Press.

PUZZLING RELATION

Elizabeth came to school one day in a state of suppressed excitement. Going straight to the teacher's desk, she exclaimed, exultantly:

"I've got a new little sister!"

"How very nice," replied the teacher.

"Yes," said Elizabeth; "but this is only a half-sister."

"Why, that doesn't make any difference, does it?"

"No, but I never can understand where the other half is."—Harper's Magazine.

Badly Shaken

Second Ditty—I have.

"Great Scott! Why?"

"You remember that s-second-hand car I bought last week? The s-salesman told me it would last a lifetime."

Circular Letter?

A young man who had a pretty but flirtatious fiancée wrote to a rival, thus:

"I hear you have been kissing my girl. Come to my office at 11 p. m., Saturday. I want to have this out."

His reply was: "I have received your circular letter, and will be at the meeting."

Only Sign of Progress

A man who had settled in America, who had been visiting his old home in England, was asked what he thought about the changes that had taken place in the village during his absence.

"Changes!" he exclaimed. "Gee, there's only one worth notin'. The village pump's been swapped for a gas pump!"—Stray Stories.

NO GOOD AT ALL

"I tell you this medicine is equally as good for curing headaches as it is for curing chilblains, liver complaint or spinal meningitis."

"I don't doubt that for a minute. So's rain water."

Realization

Papa was an ardent golfer and his every spare moment was spent on the links. One Saturday evening he arrived home later than usual and his greeting to his son, Junior, was not as effusive as other evenings. Junior noted the downcast, hangdog look that papa wore and his inquisitive nature prompted him to ask:

"Papa, how long does it take to play a game of golf?"

"My son," said papa in solemn tones, glancing at his score card of three figures. "It varies, but some fellows can't play a game in a lifetime."

Profitable Tourist Trade

There are now 650,000 automobiles being operated in Canada and nearly 200,000 American cars crossed the Canadian border last year, according to A. W. Campbell, federal commissioner of highways of Canada. The great interest displayed in Canada by American auto tourists registered a net profit to the Dominion approximating $100,000,000 last year.

Shooting to Poor Rapids

Little Patty Lou came running into the house.

"Oh, mother," she exclaimed, "may I shoot the rabbits some time?"

"Why, honey, you don't want to hurt the poor little rabbits, do you?"

"It doesn't hurt them, mother. You just shoot them down into the water at Broad Ripple park."—Indianapolis News.

Golf Balls Driven Far

The first golfers in the world to use a grain elevator as a teeing off place are Chick Evans of Chicago and Jock Hutchinson, who recently drove off the roof of Spillers elevator at Vancouver, British Columbia. Two hundred and fifty feet above the waters of Burrard Inlet the visiting golf champions sent their balls far out across Vancouver harbor. The little white balls were addressed to "Liverpool via Vancouver."

Found His Game at Home

J. J. LaCourse of Meredith, N. H., shouldered his gun and hiked to distant parts for an afternoon's hunt. Shortly after his departure four coons appeared in his front yard and climbed a tree, where they were held (with broom and apron) by Mrs. LaCourse until his return with an empty bag some hours later. All four coons were captured.

How Industry Can Reduce Accidents

"Auto death list nears 800—94 more than last year's toll"—is the headline of a Chicago daily.

City ordinances and traffic regulations have not succeeded in reducing the number of accidents. Why?

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes the right state of mind toward driving has not been created.

The driver of an automobile must consider human life more important than any business urgency. He must realize that a few minutes of time gained may mean death, and that a life can never be restored. A moment's carelessness and a little child is crushed beneath the wheels. A reckless risk and an old man is knocked down, never to walk again.

The driver of an automobile must feel the weight of his responsibility. He must be willing to take the time and the extra precautions needed to play safe at any cost.

This necessary state of mind cannot be compelled by law. It can be produced only by an appeal to the intelligence and human sympathy of man for man.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes that this state of mind can be created, to a large extent, among drivers of other vehicles.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has inaugurated a system of traffic and safety rules, which all drivers of Company owned trucks or cars are required to observe. These regulations apply to every employee of the Company and every driver is asked to pledge himself to observe them.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) considers its traffic rules of primary importance. It realizes that success depends upon the spirit of service and co-operation in the employees themselves. It knows that a state of mind cannot be compelled by law. It appeals to the loyalty and sound judgment of its men. They obey its traffic rules because they want to, because they know that they are right.

This Company has proved by its own experience that the state of mind which avoids accidents can be created and cultivated among drivers of its trucks and cars.

Its attitude, reflected in its rules, has taken the first long step in the direction of creating this state of mind. This "service of safety" is but one of the many services this Company offers to the public, which makes its success in industry possible.

Always a Wise Now Investment Better than ever before

Dodge Brothers, Inc. have announced astonishingly low new prices.

They have announced important refinements in their product. Always building an exceptional car, they are now building better than ever.

Better in many ways—in beauty, comfort, driving vision, engine smoothness, snap, elasticity and getaway.

The simultaneous offering of lower prices and vital improvements is made possible by a gigantic expansion of buildings and equipment.

Ten million dollars so invested permit great savings through vastly increased volume and efficiency.

Part of these savings goes into further betterment of the car. The other part goes directly back to the buyer—in the form of a price reduction that staggered the industry.

Those who chose Dodge Brothers Motor Car in the past invested their money wisely.

Today they invest more wisely than ever before.

BABE RUTH IN USUAL GOOD RESOLUTIONS

SAYS HE IS TRAINED DOWN
IN FINE SHAPE

READY TO PLAY BASEBALL TO
COL. RUPERT'S SATIS-FACTION

EVEN PROMISES TO PITCH SOME GAMES FOR HUG-
GINS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Jan. 18.—Trained down to the best condition he has attained in years, Babe Ruth, who used to hit homers for the New York Yankees, is getting ready to go south full of health and new resolutions.

The Babe is turning into the last year of a contract that calls for $1,000 each and every Saturday of the year and he naturally would like to have it renewed next winter at the same price.

Last summer, when he was not playing ball as good as he should have been told by Col. Jake Ruppert, owner of the team, that he would be just an outfielder when it came time for a new contract and that fat outfielders were not worth any too much on the foot.

Since the close of the season the Babe has been working harder to get himself in shape than he has ever worked before. He went up into the Canadian woods with a number of other ball players and he is not ashamed to admit that he had to ride in on a truck horse while the other athletes walked. He came out, however, under his own steam.
The Yankee officials then notified him that he could not get his freight paid to Hot Springs for his annual baths and that he would have to find another and more laborious way of getting himself in shape.

He decided upon a winter in a gymnasium instead of the life of a country gentleman on his rural estate in Sudbury, Mass., and after a month of hard work he has been released with a diploma pronouncing that he is in condition to play golf, baseball and bridge.

"I'm going to work this year," the Babe said. "I'm down to weight now and I feel like playing ball. The pennant in our league this year is open to any ball club and the Yankees ought to be in there. I'm ready not only to play ball every day, but I'll go in there and pitch some games for 'Hug,' if he'll let me do it."

DULUTH TEAM
PLAYS RAINBOWS
HERE SATURDAY

LOCALS PUTTING IN STRENUOUS WEEK PREPARING FOR THE DULUTHIAN INVASION

ARRAY OF STARS HAS CONQUER-ED MANY FAST STATE
TEAMS

Duluth will come to Brainerd on Saturday for their game with the rainbows, bringing a snappy bunch of basketball stars, and promises to give local fandom a run for their money in the interest of the contest.

The Rainbows are putting in some strong licks of practice for the contest, and Manager Peterson is working hard to get the fastest combination working in order to cope with the strong line-up of the Duluthians.

The game will be held on Saturday night, starting at 8:30 o'clock, giving business men a chance to witness the game. A preliminary game is being booked to provide thrills for the early arrivals.

This will be the biggest game of the year for independent basketball in this city, and the best that has been seen in Brainerd for many years. The game is a real test for the local boys, but with a week of strenuous practice, they expect to be in shape to withstand the onslaughts of the team from the head of the lakes.

The Rainbows will be picked from the following men— forwards: Bol-lens, Hanson, Larson, Hagberg, Day; centers: Beresford and Ziebell;
guards: Heikkinen, Orth and Dieckhaus. From this bunch of court-men, a fast combination is sure to come.

Opposed to this array of local talent will be a team that has proved the conquerors of such teams as the Two Harbors Independents, Hibbing Aces, Cloquet American Legion, and Aitkin City team. Every man is a star in his position, and a glance at the line-up shows why the team is feared by all opponents.

Micky McDonald, captain, is a former Cathedral High star. Has also played football with Cathedral High, Ironwood City team, Duluth city team and Chicago Cardinals. He is a forward.

Johnny Benda, a guard, also played with the Cathedral High team, and the city football team of 1925.
Played with St. Victor's College in 1924 and 1925. He is the best guard turned out at the head of the lakes for several years.

Bill Jensen and Al Rosen, guard and center respectively, played with the state Y. M. C. A. team, winning the championship at Minneapolis in 1925.

P. Roberts, forward, Jack Mac-Donald, guard, and Alex MacDonald, forward, played with the city championship team of 1924 and 1925.

Fans, this is a real treat for Brainerd. Come and bring your friends to see this game. If this game proves financially successful, Manager Peterson promises to book the fast Superior team here for a game.

Tickets may be bought from any member of the team.

Neck, L. I., N. Y., Jack Burke, Houston, and Bobby Cruikshank of Chicago, Smith sank a two foot putt for won the Texas open golf championship and a purse of $1,500. His total for the 72 holes was 288, one

Cruikshank missed a 10-inch putt on

BEING A CHAMPION

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Jan. 18.—Just before Helen Wills, the American tennis champion, sailed for a series of matches in France and England, she was asked if she felt in condition for a hard campaign.

"Never felt better," she replied. "I've been practicing five hours a day, five days in the week all during the fall and winter."

To those who may think that the life of a champion is all roses and fun, this may be a revelation.
To keep her game at its peak she had to work harder and longer every day than many professional men and along with it she devoted enough of her time to study to become one of the honor members of her class at the University of California.

The ordinary citizen who has to content himself with a vacation of two weeks once in twelve months and labor for the wherewith to enjoy it is moved to think that a ranking tennis player has a snap.

All a star has to do, the surface evidence indicates, is to travel all summer from fashionable club to fashionable club, be welcomed and feted by society and spend many times less than thirty minutes in actual competition.
This, it is true, is the act that appears on the stage. The life behind the scenes is another matter.

To hold a place of prominence in the spotlight, an athlete has to be a star and remain a star. With the proper talent it is not as difficult to reach the top as it is to remain there.

The tennis player, the boxer and the baseball player have the incentive of ambition when they are climbing to the top but when they reach the goal there is an instinctive impulse to let down.

Keeping in condition entails a lot of sacrifice. Regular hours and a regulated diet have to be observed, forms of amusement have to be restricted and a fight has to be waged constantly to ward off that feeling of boredom that even a champion can't avoid at times in his game.

"Five hours a day, five days a week," explains why Helen Wills is a champion before her career has hardly started.

The young champion probably had no more natural ability when she first put a racket in her hand than any other youngster starting the game. She applied herself, however, and kept plugging away hour after hour, day after day, until she became one of the best players in the world.

She is practically alone in the American field as far as opposition is concerned but she has not let down.

No doubt she has her mind on the crown worn by Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the world's champion, and with the perseverance that seems to be her most prominent characteristic, she surely will wear it some day.

IT wouldn't be more annoying than a radio set that receives only half the stations.

Each broadcasting station is assigned a definite wave-hundred stations broadcasting on less than 240 meters not reached by these other receivers.

You don't need two sets to get all these stations, present and it receives from 550 down to 150 meters, thanks to an exclusive

No Joke

Though running out of gas is not so doggone funny, it is not half so bad as running out of money.

Took His Advice

Alice—What happened when your father told your fiancé he ought to put something aside for a rainy day? Helen—A little later dad missed his raincoat.

He Was

"You looked foolish the night you proposed to me," reminisced Mrs. Spatt.

"I could never deceive you, could I, darling?" her husband agreed.

'Twas Unnecessary

Francis—Did you take father apart and talk to him? Francis—No, I didn't have to. He went all to pieces when he saw me coming.

No Danger

"Think it would be safe to insult that prize fighter?" "Uh huh! He wouldn't fight you for less than $2,000,000."

DIFFERENCE IN WEAPONS

"He was held up by a bobbed-hair bandit who compelled him to marry her."

"Well, it amounted to that—only she used a bundle of love letters instead of a gun."

Talk Is Not Cheap

I scorn the man who hollers That talk is cheap. Oh, Fudge! It cost me fifty dollars To say, "Good morning, Judge!"

Beat Him to It

"An' when 'at robbar man said, 'Hol' up yo' hands!' what did you say?" "Me? Ah jes' laughed at him. Ah already had 'em up."

Further Proof

Mrs. Smith—It says here that women of the South Sea Islands boss their husbands.

Mr. Smith—Oh, I guess it's absolutely universal!

Tiny Church

The smallest Catholic church in the world is on the Old Palo Alto plantation in Louisiana. The chapel is large enough for a small altar and standing room for the priest celebrating mass. The congregation occupies benches outside of the chapel.

Demand for Baskets

JAZZ BAND FEATURE

Features This Week's Offering at New Park Tomorrow Evening

A big jazz band will feature this week's vaudeville offering at the New Park theatre tomorrow evening. Brownlee's Hickville Follies presents a rural review with a comedy, rube band, singers, dancers and comedians. The village boys and girls get together for a real old gloom-chasing jubilee and make things interesting with their idea of the Charleston and City Jazz. The entire company comes from the front of the theatre and introduces itself to the customers on the way to the stage.

The Mitkus duo do a sensational perch act. The female member of this duo works on top of a twenty foot perch. This act was at the New York Hippodrome for eleven consecutive weeks, and also has played a late feature with Ringling Brothers circus. This is said to be one of Europe's best novelty acts.

Frank Maxwell with his deep bass voice makes a hit with the audience before they see him, singing off the wings with a beauty and appeal making every word clearly understood. When he steps out, the audience gets a surprise, for instead of coming in evening dress, which his ballad suggests, he appears in Holland Dutch costume.

"Room 515" would not mean much to the average inhabitant of a commercial hotel, but to the celebrated divorce lawyer who appears with Wanda Ludlow in this act it means a lot. Miss Ludlow is a baby vamp in every sense of the word. "In the most alluring" of pink pajamas she simply ramps the lawyer until he is ready to say anything and sign anything. This act can be counted on for a flock of laughs. Miss Ludlow was with David Warfield in "The Auctioneer."

Hugh Johnston in "The Merry Trickster" is a comedy conjurer with the famous billiard ball trick. He brings his inimitable blend of magic and fun into his act. As a magician, Johnston has the reputation of proving a sensation at every word. But as a manufacturer of comedy the magician is reputed to be in what is for him an almost unlimited field. Besides the now famous billiard ball trick, Mr. Johnston has added numerous other baffling discoveries.

RECOVERING FROM WOUNDS SELF INFLICTED

Miles City, Mont., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Kenneth Sletto is recovering here today from five revolver shot wounds inflicted, apparently without provocation, by Miss Bessie Lang, Slope Center.

Miss Lang and Sletto were guests at a party near Marmarth. Suddenly the woman drew a small caliber revolver and fired six shots.

Sletto was brought here for treatment. Physicians said he would recover although his vitality is seriously taxed from the wounds. One bullet scratched his head, two lodged in his shoulder, one struck him in the arm and another in the thigh.

Miss Lang recently returned from a sanitarium and it is believed she had not fully recovered from a mental breakdown.

Police dragged the Mississippi river here today in an effort to recover the body of Abraham Straus, thought to have committed suicide by jumping from a bridge.

Straus left his home last Friday and has not been seen since. His hat and scarf were found on the bridge. The river is open below the bridge from which he is believed to have jumped.

No Demonstration can reveal all of BUICK Excellence

ANY time you drive a Buick you will wonder how such a remarkable car can be sold at such a moderate price.

In just a few minutes you will realize that you are starting, stopping, parking, driving with much greater ease and security. And that you are surrounded by quality and luxury which rank with the very finest.

But demonstration will tell only part of the Buick story, and you should know all of it.

A demonstration cannot show you the enduring stamina of body and chassis that belongs to Buick. Years are necessary for that. It can only suggest the powerful ability of Buick's 75 horsepower Valve-in-Head engine, built for hills. It cannot tell you how thoroughly the Buick "Sealed Chassis" and the Buick "Triple Sealed" engine will protect Buick performance on dusty, gritty roads.

And it cannot even hint of the mental ease you will enjoy, with Buick Authorized Service "just around the corner," everywhere in America.

GAINS HIGH SKI
HONORS AT CARY

STANDING LEAP OF 148 FEET IS CREDITED TO HIM
OTHER JUMPS GOOD ENOUGH TO GIVE HIM 17.8
POINTS

Cary, Ill., Jan. 18.—(UP)—With a standing leap of 148 feet, Anders Haugen, of Grand Beach, Mich., took highest honors in the Cary ski tournament yesterday. His other jumps were good enough to give him 17.8 points for the championship of the middle west's premier snow carnival. Haugen's brother, Lars, whose home is at St. Paul, made the next best jump—141 feet—but his average was not as high as that of Halvor Bjorngaard, Red Wing, Minn., who got second place with 17.6 points although his best leap was only 133 feet. H. Alstedt, Minneapolis, made the best jump in Class B—141 feet—but he placed only third. Herbert Elfstrand, Duluth, and Jorgen Johansen, Rockford, Ill., won first and second place in this event. Loraine Madsen of Chicago won first place in the women's slide, form alone counting for points. Distance was not marked.

Cary, Ill., Jan. 18.—Eight persons seriously injured yesterday in an unusual accident at the Norge ski meet here were recovering today. The eight, all of Chicago, were riding on a toboggan attached to an automobile when they were crushed under another car approaching from the rear, witnesses said. Ten persons narrowly escaped drowning when an automobile in which they were riding to the meet broke through the ice of Fox River. The ice came up over the sides of the car but the occupants waded to shore.

IN EVENT

Thomson, Ill., Jan. 18.—(UP)—Approximately 500 hunters from northern Illinois and eastern Iowa, have announced their intention of participating in the sectional wolf and fox hunt that will be held here Jan. 25.

The hunt was decided upon after farmers of Carroll county had been annoyed for several months by foxes and wolves. Plans now call for the hunters to meet at Argo-Fay at 10 o'clock on the morning of Jan. 25. Argo church women will serve a lunch at 11 o'clock and the drive will start at noon.

Argo-Fay is an inland town seven miles southwest of Mt. Carmel, six miles northeast of Thomson and 12 miles southeast of Savanna. A similar hunt conducted here last year was attended by sportsmen from Chicago, Rockford, Freeport, Rock Island, Davenport, Clinton and other towns, and delegations from these towns are expected this year.

STOCK MARKET IMPROVED

New York, Jan. 18.—(UP)—Deflection of the surplus of $25,210,000 shown in Saturday's clearing house statement compared with a deficit of $29,211,000 the preceding week was afforded in a considerably improved tone in active stocks at the start of the week. Another important factor in the rallying tendency displayed in the general list was the strengthening of the market's inside position resulting from last week's heavy selling which evidently made noteworthy progress toward the elimination of overbought conditions among the speculative leaders.

Good sized recoveries from their recent lows took place in U. S. Steel, American Can, Hudson, General Motors and other pivotal industrials.

Substantial advances took place in special issues like California Packing, Texas Gulf Sulphur and Foundation Co., while rails were stimulated by a burst of strength in Norfolk and Western. About the only important weak spot was Industrial Alcohol which broke to new low ground for the year in the late afternoon. This decline failed to unsettle the general list which maintained a confident tone to the close.

The market closed higher.
